

OUR THEATRES NEXT WEEK.

"Hamlet" to Be Sung In French at the Metropolitan.

Harlemites Have a Treat in Store in "Niobe."

At the Metropolitan Opera-House next week "Lohengrin" will be sung Monday night by Alسانیا Giulia Ravagli, Edouard de Reszke, Maggio-Coletti, Serbelloni and Jean de Reszke. Wednesday night Ambroise Thomas's opera, "Hamlet," will be sung in French for the first time this season. In the cast will be Mario Van Zandt, Giulia Ravagli, Edouard de Reszke, Montaruti, Vivian Vaschetti and Lassalle, who will sing the role of the melancholy Dane. "Don Giovanni" will be sung for the last time Friday night by Alسانیا Giulia Ravagli, Edouard de Reszke, Serbelloni, Carbone and Edouard de Reszke.

George A. Beane, Jr., has returned to the cast of "A Trip to Chinatown" at the Madison Square Theatre. He is not for several days, during which time R. A. Roberts interpreted the role. The tenth performance of Hoyt's skit at this theatre will take place next Friday night, when some very pretty souvenirs will be distributed.

"La Cigale" will enter upon the last week of its long engagement at the Garden Theatre Monday night. At the last matinee, which occurs next Saturday, Miss Russell will present to every feminine visitor a bouquet of orchids and American Beauty roses, tied together by pretty ribbons, to which will be attached the beauteous Lillian's autograph card.

"Niobe," one of the most delightful comedies that New York has seen in years, will be seen at Hammerstein's Harlem Opera-House next week. The Harlemites have a genuine treat in store for them, and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his abilities as an actor are not restricted to one line of work.

It is said that the play will not be changed during the remainder of the Star's tenure.

The plays during the past week have been of a very satisfactory size.

Manager Hanley says: "The last of the sixth week of our run at the Broadway Theatre will be a genuine and spirited springing of the heart." The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the rest of the season with the same enthusiasm and it does not differ very much from the various farces-somedice with which New York has been dealing of late. Niobe is the star, and he is a very clever people.

"The Baby" will be next week's attraction at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem. This roaring farce-comedy needs few words of introduction. At the last matinee the audience of thousands of little girls and boys were quite restless. When this farce-comedy grows, Miss Agnes Huntington the charming contralto, will be the attraction.

Miss Marie Tempest will be given to the Casino—or au revoir, at any rate—next Saturday night, after which the present company will go on to the Lyceum.

Joseph Murray, an Irish comedian who is still quite popular, will be the attraction at the "Tropicana" on Monday, Feb. 15. "Uncle Tom" will be the star of the show.

Billy Edwards, while talking the matter over in the Hoffman House-nights, said he was very anxious about his weight.

The last matinee of "Nancy and Company" at Daly's Theatre will be given this afternoon.

The cast of "The Lion Tamer" will enter upon the sixth week of its run at the Broadway Theatre Monday night. All gray and silvered up.

The "Lion Tamer" and the comedy are certainly one of the best in the daily repertoire. "Love in Tambo" is now being actively rehearsed.

At Huber's Palace Museum during the coming weeks a genuine and spirited springing of the heart will be played.

"For Money," with William H. Crane in the lead, will open at the Lyceum next week.

Commodore, who has proved that his